THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

सत्यमेव जयते

Preamble

We, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA, having solemnly resolved to constitute India into a SOVEREIGN SOCIALIST SECULAR DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC and to secure to all its citizens

Justice Social, Economic and Political:

Liberty of Thought, Expression, Belief, Faith And Worship

Equality of status and of opportunity and to promote among them all

Fraternity assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of the Nation.

In Our Constituent Assembly this twenty-sixth day of November, 1949, do Hereby Adopt, Enact & Give to Ourselves This Constitution.

CHAPTER IV A - FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

ARTICLE 51 A Fundamental Duties -

It shall be the duty of every citizen of India :

- a) To abide by the Constitution and respect its ideals and institutions, the National Flag and the National Anthem;
- b) To cherish and follow the noble ideals which inspired our national struggle for freedom;
- c) To uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India;
- d) To defend the country and render national service when called upon to do so;
- e) To promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood amongst all the people of India transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities; to renounce practices derogatory to the dignity of women;
- f) To value and preserve the rich heritage of our composite culture;
- g) To protect and improve the natural environment including forests, lakes, rivers, wild life and to have compassion for living creatures;
- h) To develop the scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform;
- i) To safeguard public property and to abjure violence;
- j) To strive towards excellence in all spheres of individual and collective activity so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of endeavour and achievement.
- k) To provide opportunities for education by the parents / guardian to his ward between the age 6-14 years as the case may be.

RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Students are expected to maintain high standard in their general behaviour and manner of speech. Bad and improper language will not be accepted.
2. English being the medium of instruction in the school, students are advised to maintain a suitable level of English. It is compulsory for the students to speak in English at all times except in classes and activities of other languages.
3. They should be well-behaved (respectful to their elders), honest, truthful and are answerable to the school authorities for their conduct in and outside the school.
4. Students should have deep respect and dedication to their work. Attentiveness in class and regularity in homework and assignments are of prime importance.
5. Students should carry their student diaries to school every day, even on examination days.
6. Personal hygiene and neatness are of utmost importance. Hair must be neatly groomed, worn short in the case of boys and neatly tied in the case of girls. Students should cut their nails regularly.
7. School uniform is compulsory at all times. Clothes must be clean and ironed. Shoes must be polished. [White uniform must be worn on Tuesdays]. Students who come to school for any purpose whatsoever should be in the proper school uniform; even if they don't have classes on that day. Students in improper uniform will face disciplinary action.
8. Only small chocolates should be brought and distributed during the recess for birthday.
9. Students are not allowed to colour their hair, wear fancy contact lenses, wear low-waist pants, coloured or short socks or short pinafores. The pinafore should fall one inch below the knee.
10. Students should not wear jewellery such as gold chain, bangles, wrist bands, friendship bands, finger rings, anklets, costly watches and long earrings. Girls may wear short earrings (studs). Mobiles and other electronic gadgets are strictly not allowed. If confiscated, it will be returned only at the end of the session.
11. Students must realize that the school property belongs to them. Proper care of school property and things belonging to others is a mark of a well-bred and responsible student. Student should not write, carve or scratch on the walls and

- furniture. Any damage to school property will not be overlooked. The loss must be made good by the offender.
12. No collective petition will be entertained. But reasonable and private ones will be sympathetically attended to.
 13. The management reserves to itself the right to dismiss students who make no progress in their studies or whose conduct is detrimental to the orderly life of the school. Irregular attendance, insubordination to teachers, habitual inattention to school work, obscenity in word or act, and repeated damage to school property are sufficient reasons for dismissal of a pupil.
 14. All students should present themselves in school on the opening day of the school after the vacation. Absentees, who do not give prior intimation of the delay, may have their names struck off the roll to enable the school to accommodate those on the waiting list.
 15. Application for medical leave should be accompanied by Medical Certificate from qualified doctors.
 16. A pupil who has, for some unexplained reason, been absent for a month or more, is liable to have his or her name struck off without advance notice. If re-admitted, he or she will be considered as fresh admission.
 17. Parents / guardians / students should be aware that use of social media websites is governed by the laws of Sultanate of Oman. If these media are not used judiciously it may lead to legal implications.
 18. Parents are requested not to enter the classes for any reason. Teachers will not entertain any parent in the classroom.
 19. Students are strictly forbidden to bring to school books, newspapers, magazines and instruments not pertaining to their daily works.
 20. During class hours students should not leave the classrooms under any pretext. Students are not allowed to leave the school premises without the permission of the Principal, Vice-Principal or administrator in case of emergency.
